

Software Engineers

Full Time/Permanent Positions

About Job

We are looking for an experienced software engineer to add to our exceptional development team that designs recording solutions for specialized markets. Successful candidates will work in a small team environment to design and implement new products that can manage the storage and retrieval of captured data from various sources.

Required Skill:

- Programming in Java
- JavaServer Faces & Enterprise JavaBeans
- PrimeFaces
- Database Architecture with PostgreSQL experience
- Spring Boot
- Docker
- Experience Developing Software Programs and APIs for Linux and Windows Environments

COMPANY INFORMATION

Located near Orlando, FL, EIZO Rugged Solutions (eizorugged.com) is a major supplier of graphics hardware to the Defense, Avionics and Air Traffic Control markets. We work in small teams to deliver high performance computer hardware solutions in graphics, video, encoding and recording into diverse markets with many applications in very harsh environments. EIZO Rugged Solutions is a fast growing company with a competitive team spirit and strong potential for personal growth. It is a group company of EIZO Corporation, manufacturer of very high quality display products, based in Japan. EIZO Rugged Solutions, formerly Tech Source, has been in business since 1987.

Essential Experience / Qualifications:

- BSCE, BSCS or equivalent
- In depth knowledge of database design and implementation
- Client/Server Experience
- In depth knowledge of application development on GNU/Linux
- Working knowledge of Networks including TCP/IP and socket programming
- Good communication skills

Auxiliary Qualifications:

- JavaScript, GlassFish, HTML, XML, CSS
- User Interface Development
- SNMP, RTP

Benefits:

- Excellent salary and medical benefits
- 401K plan
- Located in Sunny Florida (Orlando area)